GO TO JAMESTOWN.

Daughters of Revolution to be Guests of A. P. V. A.

The trip down the James River on Saturday will be one of the most unique and delightful excursions ever taken down this bisnite stream.

The Irip dotte one of the most unique and delightful excursions ever taken down this historic stream.

The National Sective of the Daughters of the American Revolution have announced their purpose of placing a memorial at Jamestown and have appointed to delegation of fifty ladles to go to Jamestown and this memorial,

The Association for the Proservation of medically decided to become the host of the Cocasion, and will entertain the Daughters and a few distinguished guests. On Saturday the beautiful new steamer Brandon will take the ladies down to Jamestown, a dinner will be served, and the officers and Central Committee of the A P. V. A. will receive and amuse their guests with the wealth of story, for which the James is famed.

The boat will leave her wharf at 8 in the morning and return at 8 in the evening.

Mr. W. L. Gillardien, the president

The boat will leave her what at a the morning and return at 8 in the evening.

Mr. W. L. Gillardieu, the president of the Old Dominion Steamship Company, who has been so kind as to arrange it so that the ladies might have the lirandon, and Mrs. Gillardieu will be among the distinguished guests. The Governor and Mrs. Montague and some of the Richmond Cleraymen, a delegation from the Richmond D. A. R., and other prominent citizens will also be included. Each year Jamestown becomes more and more entertaining. Each unearthed foundation tells a qualnt and charming story. The flowers are lovelier each year, and the turf more luxuriant, and the careful work done upon the place emphasize the loving watchfulness extended to the sacred spot, first by the James-tewn/Committee, A. P. V. A., and secondly by the whole association, who holds it is a priceless possession.
